Title: Republic of Magincia

Author: Recruitment

Be a part of something great.

The gargoyles and the elves have their own homelands while humanity is without a center. The culture of humanity is scattered and unfocused, spread out without a sense of destiny and in need of a home. Your destiny may very well be with us. You have the opportunity to help rebuild the city of Magincia with us.

The Republic of Magincia is a seasoned guild based out of the soon to be restored city. We role play the defenders and citizens of Magincia,

opening wide opportunities for anyone's play style.
Be you a warrior, a merchant or a socialite there is a place for you with us.

Do you want to be part of something new?

We recruit human characters that are eager to role play being part of the rise of Magincia.
